

Scotland Policy Conferences keynote seminar:

Priorities for cancer provision in Scotland

Timing: Morning, Monday, 29th April 2024

Taking Place Online

SCOTLAND POLICY
CONFERENCES

Agenda subject to change

- 8.30 Registration
- 9.00 Chair's opening remarks
John Macgill, Publisher, Healthcare News Scotland; and Founder, Ettrickburn
- 9.05 Assessing the current state of cancer services in Scotland - priorities for monitoring and improving diagnosis rates
Professor David Morrison, Director, Scottish Cancer Registry, Public Health Scotland
Questions and comments from the floor
- 9.35 Priorities for service recovery
delivery of high quality palliative care | addressing key workforce challenges | reducing service variation and standardising care | use of new technology | enhancing collaboration
Dr Frances Yuille, Consultant in Clinical Oncology, Edinburgh Cancer Centre; and Chair, Scottish Standing Committee, Royal College of Radiologists
Amy Dalrymple, Associate Director for Scotland Policy and Public Affairs, Marie Curie Scotland
Professor Ghulam Nabi, Professor of Surgical Uro-oncology, University of Dundee; and Senior Clinical Lecturer, Medical Research Council
Questions and comments from the floor
- 10.25 'Humanised innovation: lessons learned from the ICARE project'
Ioanna Nixon, Cancer Innovation Lead, West of Scotland Innovation Hub; and Clinical Director Oncology, The Beatson West of Scotland Cancer Centre, NHS Greater Glasgow and Clyde
Questions and comments from the floor
- 10.55 Chair's closing remarks
John Macgill, Publisher, Healthcare News Scotland; and Founder, Ettrickburn
- 11.00 Break
- 11.15 Chair's opening remarks
Professor Ghulam Nabi, Professor of Surgical Uro-oncology, University of Dundee; and Senior Clinical Lecturer, Medical Research Council
- 11.20 Long-term priorities for meeting the strategy's aims
moving towards models of prevention and early intervention | making progress on lung cancer targets | enhancing the provision of holistic and personalised care | options for prehabilitation and improving patient outcomes
Lorraine Dallas, Director of Patient Support and Information, Roy Castle Lung Cancer Foundation
Dr Tasmin Sommerfield, National Clinical Advisor for Screening, NHS National Services Scotland
Dr Lorna Porteous, Co-Chair, Scottish Primary Care Cancer Group
Gillian Hailstones, Deputy CEO, Beatson Cancer Charity
Surabhi Srivastava, Commercial Vice President UK, Qure.ai
Questions and comments from the floor
- 12.20 Assessing priorities going forward for delivery of quality care across Scotland
Professor David Cameron, Professor of Oncology, University of Edinburgh
Questions and comments from the floor
- 12.55 Chair's and Scotland Policy Conferences closing remarks
Professor Ghulam Nabi, Professor of Surgical Uro-oncology, University of Dundee; and Senior Clinical Lecturer, Medical Research Council
Jessica Lear, Scotland Policy Conferences